Acknowledgements

This book represents a capital product of the scientific and research project ‘Europe and Montenegro – Transformation of Montenegrin Society in the Process of Europeanization of the Western Balkans,’ which was financially supported by the Ministry of Science of Montenegro. It additionally represents the result of the commitment and excellent cooperation of two faculties: Humanistic Studies of the University of Donja Gorica, as the project holder, and the Faculty of Political Sciences of the University of Belgrade, as a partner institution.

Special merits for publishing this book go to the project leader, academician Đorđije Borozan, but also to the project coordinator and its spiritus movens Nikoleta Đukanović, without whose energy and dedication the project and the book would never have been realized. Special merits also belong to the researchers on the project: Dragan Đukanović, Dragan Simić, Bojan Božović, Nikola Šaranović, Dragan Živojinović, Milan Krstić, Stevan Nedeljković and Marko Dašić. A significant contribution to the project and the book was also made by external collaborators and authors of the chapters: Jelena Đurišić, Milica Kovač-Orlandić, Dana Luša, Ivana Radić-Milosavljević, Vladimir Ateljević, Boško Picula and Predrag Zenović.

The book project was preceded by an important workshop, held in July 2021, at the Faculty of Political Sciences in Belgrade, and led by the book's editor Adam Bence Balazs. Without his ideas, suggestions and guidelines this book would never have happened. In that sense, the project team owes him great and indescribable gratitude.

The project ‘Europe and Montenegro – Transformation of Montenegrin Society in the Process of Europeanization of the Western Balkans’ aimed to bring together researchers from the region (Montenegro, Serbia and Croatia) with the goal of developing a better comprehension of the process of Europeanization and EU integration of Montenegro and Serbia, but also the rest of Western Balkans region. Therefore, we also express our gratitude to the Ministry of Science of Montenegro for recognizing the importance of the thematic framework of our project, and also for its broad understanding when it twice became necessary to extend the project in view of the escalation of the COVID-19 pandemic.

We would also like to thank the publisher Nomos Verlag and its representative Beate Bernstein for their openness, enthusiasm, excellent communication and willingness to publish this important book. Special thanks also go to Bénédicte Williams for proofreading this book and for her boundless patience, unconditional help and professional dedication until the last page of this book.

On behalf of the project team,
